

WORLD STUDIES, 4TH EDITION

LESSON PLAN OVERVIEW

Day(s)	Topic(s)	Pages	Support Materials	Bible Integration
Chapter 1: Turning Points in World History: Creation–476
1–3	The Beginnings of the Human Race	4–8	Activity 1: The Epic of Gilgamesh Activity 2: Noah's Descendants CD Material	Creation Made in God's Image Creation Mandate The Fall Plan for Redemption The Flood Sin's continuation after the Flood Confusion at the Tower of Babel
4–5	The History of Israel	8–10	Activity 3: Covenants	Abrahamic Covenant Mosaic Covenant Davidic Covenant
6–8	The Coming of the Christ	11–16	Activity 4: Early Church History Activity 5: St. Patrick CD Material	Coming of Christ “in the fullness of time” Death, burial, and resurrection of Christ The growth and spread of the church Constantine and the church Christian involvement in society
9	Chapter Review		Activity 6: Chapter Review
10	Chapter Test
Chapter 2: The Rise of Islam: 622–800
11–13	The Origin of Islam	20–27	Activity 1: The God of Islam Activity 2: Shiite Versus Sunni CD Material	Islam and the Trinity Islam and the deity of Christ Islam and salvation Islam and the Bible
14	The Spread of Islam	28–29	Activity 3: Expansion of Islam
15–16	The Culture of Islam	30–32	Activity 4: Abbasid Contributions to Culture
17	The Confrontation with Islam	33–34	Activity 5: Background of Islam CD Material
18	Chapter Review		Activity 6: Chapter Review
19	Chapter Test
Chapter 3: Transition in Sub-Saharan Africa: 0–1600
20–21	African Culture	40–44	Activity 1: The Eskimo Creation Narrative CD Material	The family Creation stories
22–23	Early African Empires	44–49	Activity 2: The Yoruba Creation Narrative Activity 3: Fictional Journal Entries CD Material	Spread of Coptic Christianity to Ethiopia and its role in checking the spread of Islam Creation Mandate: growth of cities The camel—evidence of God's design
24–25	Centers of Civilization in East Africa	49–50	Activity 4: Africa CD Material	Creation Mandate: growth of cities
26	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
27	Chapter Test

Day(s)	Topic(s)	Pages	Support Materials	Bible Integration
Chapter 4: The Expansion of Asian Cultures: 1000–1600
28–30	Growth of Cities and Commerce in China	54–59	Activity 1: Asia and Surrounding Countries Activity 2: Marco Polo's Journals CD Material	Power and justice in China Creation Mandate: growth of cities Creation Mandate: innovations Citizenship in China Nestorian Christianity spreads across China Chinese religions contrasted with Christianity
31–32	Developments in Japan and Southeast Asia	59–62	Activity 3: Asia CD Material
33–34	Rise of the Mongol Empire	62–68	Activity 4: Mongol Invasion of Japan Activity 5: Chinese or Mongol? CD Material	Citizenship Among the Mongols Nestorian Christianity and the rise of Islam Persecution of Christianity
35	Chapter Review		Activity 6: Chapter Review
36	Chapter Test
Chapter 5: Emergence of European Culture: 500–1300
37–38	Interval Between the Fall of Rome and the Rise of Feudalism	72–76	Activity 1: After the Fall of Rome CD Material	Preserving of Christian learning Violation of the Creation Mandate: forbidding priests to marry  Justice in medieval Europe Christianizing of Europe
39	Decline of Feudalism and Development of States in Europe	76–80	Activity 2: The Anglo-Saxon Chronicle CD Material	Creation Mandate: population and productivity Citizenship in England
40–41	Expansion of Europe	80–84	CD Material	Providence Crusades and the Reformation Dominion: development of Cities
42–43	Development of Culture in Europe	84–86	Activity 3: Romanesque and Gothic Architecture Activity 4: The Canterbury Tales	Citizenship at the university Christian themes in art Christian themes in literature
44	Calamities in Europe	86–88	Activity 5: Crossword Puzzle
45	Chapter Review		Activity 6: Chapter Review
46	Chapter Test
Chapter 6: Renaissance and Reformation: 1300–1650
47–48	The Renaissance	92–98	Activity 1: Utopia CD Material	Tools of the Reformation—printing press, vernacular literature, and ancient Bible manuscripts
49–50	Discontent with the Church of Rome	98–101	Activity 2: Erasmus and Access to Scripture Activity 3: “Why Monks Are Shunned”	Development of Roman Catholic doctrine
51–52	The Reformation	101–8	Activity 4: Luther's Ninety-five Theses	Forerunners of the Reformation Reformers Central doctrines of the Reformation Results of the Reformation Huguenots
53	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
54	Chapter Test

Day(s)	Topic(s)	Pages	Support Materials	Bible Integration
Chapter 7: Age of European Exploration: 1450–1600
55–56	Native American Civilizations	114–19	Activity 1: Indian Civilizations Activity 2: Letters from Mexico CD Material	Complex Indian societies Indian civilizations and the Creation Mandate
57–58	Origins of European Exploration	120–23	Activity 3: Christopher Columbus	Spreading the gospel through exploration
59–60	Growth of European Exploration	124–28	Activity 4: Explorers and Rulers
61–62	Consequences of European Exploration	129–30	Activity 5: Bartolomé de Las Casas	Improving treatment of Indians
63	Chapter Review		Activity 6: Chapter Review
64	Chapter Test
Chapter 8: Europe Colonizes the Americas: 1600–1800
65–66	Colonization of Latin America	134–41	Activity 1: South America CD Material	John Calvin and missions in South America Creoles and citizenship
67–68	Colonization of North America	141–45	Activity 2: Early American Colonization Activity 3: Why the Pilgrims Left the Netherlands CD Material	Pilgrims and Puritans Religion and education
69–71	Struggle for Independence	145–48	Activity 4: Simón Bolívar Activity 5: European Exploration of the Americas CD Material
72	Chapter Review		Activity 6: Chapter Review
73	Chapter Test
Chapter 9: Transformations in European Culture: 1500–1800
74–75	The Rising Power of European States	152–55	Activity 1: The English Bill of Rights Activity 2: Ruling Powers in Europe CD Material	Power in European states
76–77	The Scientific Revolution	155–62	Activity 3: Galileo's Observations	Creation Mandate in history Christians and science Robert Boyle Attempts to undermine Christianity with science
78–79	The Enlightenment	162–64	Activity 4: Matching	The Enlightenment's undermining of Christianity Corruption of Christianity in culture
80	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
81	Chapter Test
Chapter 10: Oceania and Australia: 1600–1900
82–83	The Islands of Oceania	168–71	Activity 1: John G. Paton Activity 2: James Chalmers CD Material	Missionaries: John Paton and James Chalmers
84	Early European Exploration	171–73		Justice on the islands
85–86	European Exploration in the 1700s	173–75	Activity 3: James Cook's Journal	The myth of the "noble savage"
87–88	European Settlement in Australia	175–81	Activity 4: Pacific Exploration CD Material

Day(s)	Topic(s)	Pages	Support Materials	Bible Integration
89	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
90	Chapter Test
Chapter 11: Empires of Eurasia: 1300–1900
91–92	China's Ming and Manchu Dynasties	186–91	Activity 1: Ming China CD Material	Use of power
93–94	Ottoman Empire	192–95	CD Material	Providence Limited and temporary religious freedom
95	Safavid Empire	196–97	Activity 2: Asia Minor CD Material
96	Mughal Empire	198–99	Activity 3: Encounter with a Lion Activity 4: Matching CD Material
97	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
98	Chapter Test
Chapter 12: Political Turmoil in Europe: 1776–1850
99–100	French Revolution	206–11	Activity 1: The Three Estates of France CD Material	Huguenots Citizenship Contrast: the French Revolution and the American Revolution Reformation heritage
101	Rise and Fall of Napoleon	211–12	Activity 2: The Battle of Waterloo CD Material	Power
102	Revolts Across Europe	213–14	Activity 3: Europe	Positive and negative aspects of nationalism
103–104	German and Italian Unification	214–17	Activity 4: The Five Ws CD Material
105	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
106	Chapter Test
Chapter 13: Industrial and Social Revolution: 1700–1900
107–109	Laying the Foundation for Industry	222–28	Activity 1: Edison, the Inventor Activity 2: The Wright Brothers CD Material	Creation Mandate and population growth
110–112	Expansion of Industry and Rise of Social Reform	228–33	Activity 3: "Thoughts upon Slavery"—John Wesley	Markets and morals John Wesley, George Whitefield, and the Great Awakening
113–114	End of the Slave Trade in the West	233–36	Activity 4: Letter from John Wesley to William Wilberforce CD Material Activity 5: On the Horror of the Slave Trade	John Newton William Wilberforce and slavery Jonathan Edwards
115	Chapter Review		Activity 6: Chapter Review
116	Chapter Test
Chapter 14: Reform in Western Culture: 1848–1914
117–119	Reform and Radical Movements	240–45	Activity 1: The Dreyfus Affair CD Material	Viewing socialism biblically Justice Karl Marx and religion Citizenship Temperance movement Sunday school movement
120–121	Changes in Culture and Education	245–48	Activity 2: Hard Times	The Bible and Romanticism

Day(s)	Topic(s)	Pages	Support Materials	Bible Integration
122–123	Progress in Science and Technology	248–53	Activity 3: Charles Darwin	James C. Maxwell Christianity and evolution
124	Changes in Latin America and Canada	253–57	Activity 4: Crossword Puzzle CD Material
125	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
126	Chapter Test
Chapter 15: Colonial Africa: 1750–1950
127–129	Transition from Trading Partner to Possession	262–69	Activity 1: David Livingstone Activity 2: Thought the Dark Continent CD Material	Justice Citizenship Missions: David Livingstone and Robert Moffat Samuel Ajayi Crowther
130–131	Partitioning Africa for Imperialism	269–75	Activity 3: Imperialism in Africa in 1914 CD Material	Missions Power
132–133	Consequences of Imperialism	275–79	Activity 4: Abuses of Colonialism	Missions and the colonies
134	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
135	Chapter Test
Chapter 16: Spread of Imperialism: 1750–1914
136	Decline of the Ottoman Empire	284–86	Activity 1: Slaughter of the Armenians CD Material
137	Changes in Russia	286–90		Orthodoxy, autocracy, and nationality in light of Scripture Anarchy in light of Scripture Justice
138–139	Domination of India by Britain	290–93	Activity 2: The Sepoy Mutiny CD Material	Consequences of British rule (for missions) Justice and trade
140–141	Domination of Asia	294–300	Activity 3: The Goforths and the Boxer Rebellion CD Material	Hong Xiuquan and Christianity Missions in the Far East The Goforths
142–143	Modernization in Meiji Japan	300–301	Activity 4: Perry's Expedition to Japan Activity 5: Spread of Imperialism
144	Chapter Review		Activity 6: Chapter Review
145	Chapter Test
Chapter 17: War, Instability, and Depression: 1914–39
146	Prelude to World War I	308–10	Activity 1: Alvin York and His Struggle with War	Power and technology Justified war
147–148	Course of the War	310–16	Activity 2: Sides in World War I Activity 3: World War I Review CD Material	Justice and total war Armenian Genocide
149–150	Instability Following the War	316–22	Dictators	Dictators and religion Citizenship and nationalism
151	Developments in Science and Art	322–24	Media	Disillusionment
152–153	The Great Depression	325–26	Activity 4: "The Only Thing We Have to Fear . . ."
154	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
155	Chapter Test

Day(s)	Topic(s)	Pages	Support Materials	Bible Integration
Chapter 18: World War II: 1939–45
156–157	Causes of the War	330–35	Activity 1: The Bombing of Rotterdam CD Material
158–159	Course of the War	335–41	Activity 2: Churchill's Inspiring Words CD Material	Evacuation at Dunkirk Justified War and Killing Civilians
160	Consequences of the War	341–45	Activity 3: The Iron Curtain Activity 4: The World at War	Consequences of the war Growth of Christianity during and following the war
161	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
162	Chapter Test
Chapter 19: The Cold War: 1945–91
163–164	Postwar Reconstruction	348–50		The United Nations and moral issues
165–166	Development of the Cold War	351–57	Activity 1: China and Taiwan Activity 2: Korean War Activity 3: Children of the Storm CD Material	Religion and government
167–168	Transition in the Third World and Middle East	357–61	CD Material
169–170	Collapse of the Soviet Union	362–65	Activity 4: "Tear Down This Wall!" CD Material	New opportunities for Christians in the former Soviet Union: freedom of worship, evangelism, missionary outreach
171	Chapter Review		Activity 5: Chapter Review
172	Chapter Test
Chapter 20: The Global Community: 1945–Present
173–174	Environmental Trends	370–73	CD Material	The Christian and climate change Energy resources from the Creator Man's role in the environment
175	Global Economy	374–76	Activity 1: European Union CD Material	New opportunities for evangelism and carrying out the Creation Mandate through the global economy
176	Technology and Culture	376–78	Activity 2: Stem Cell Research	Christians and technology Stem cell research
177–178	Political and Religious Trends	378–82	Activity 3: Crossword Puzzle CD Material	Growth of Islam and the spread of Christianity Persecution of Christianity Wang Mingdao
179	Chapter Review		Activity 4: Chapter Review
180	Chapter Test			